CAUSE

On October 5, 2011, this officer met with the offender and his sex offender therapist. The offender realized he would not be allowed to release to his ex-wife's house due to the fact that a child lives next door, and his instant offense was committed at this residence. Additionally, Mr. Flake's work hours will be reduced by his employer. As a result, the offender will need to save all of his earned income to apply toward rental application fees, damage deposit, and first and last months rent, as well as acquiring household items for his apartment.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
